WHY IS IT WORTH CHOOSING?

Internationalization. You will work with a varied group of students and teachers with different skills, experiences and perspectives.

Interdisciplinary. The programme is a perfect choice for those, who want to gain communication and language knowledge in the perspective of region and politics studies.

This programme is the only bachelor degree study programme in Lithuania, which encompasses internationality and interculturalism in such a unique way of studies. Students are introduced to a wide range of different media technologies and ways to use them in practice.

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Gintarė Žemaitaitienė,
Vice-Dean of the Institute of Communication

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

International and Intercultural Communication Bachelor's degree graduates will become broad-minded and highly qualified specialists, who will be able to adapt perfectly not only to Lithuania's rapidly changing labour market, but also to the challenges of the globalised world. They will be able to continue their studies in various fields of graduate studies and work as mid-level professionals in the public or private sector and non-governmental organisations, create their own companies naturally integrating in the international market or pursue a career in international organisations.
