The associative European radio euradio offers the opportunity for two or three European students each semester to become members of the journalistic team during a five months paid internship. We are now looking for our next team. All the information can be found on our website (in french and in english). In order to apply, the students should send us a CV, a cover letter and the audio recording of an article in French.

Many thanks,
Best regards
