INVITATION for “TOWARDS FUTURE RESEARCH IMPACT IN LITHUANIA”

October 18th, 2022

Dear sir, madam,

2022 has been declared as the Year of Lithuanian Universities, along with celebrating the centenary of the establishment of the first Lithuanian higher education institution. It is 20 years, that Lithuanian Research Library Consortium (LMBA) has been established, to support research and its information infrastructure.

To mark the anniversaries, LMBA in partnership with Vilnius Gediminas Technical University and Elsevier is organizing a special event: Towards future research impact in Lithuania, which will be held on the afternoon of October 18th, 2022.

The aim of the event is to assess the current state of Lithuanian research and discuss future pathways. The event will present a report summarizing last decade of research results, discuss future university research strategies, developments in area of open access and open science, and more.

Aside of professional programme, the event will feature two awards:

- LMBA Awards to celebrate librarians who have significantly contributed to the development of research in Lithuania
- Research Impact Leaders Awards to celebrate universities with the best research impact leadership

The event will be closed with dinner and cocktails.
