

EXPERIENCE TRAKAI

The historical city of Trakai is a symbol of Lithuanian statehood and is one of the biggest tourist attractions nationwide due to its rich Lithuanian lore and culture.

TRAKAI CASTLE

Karaimų g. 43C, Trakai

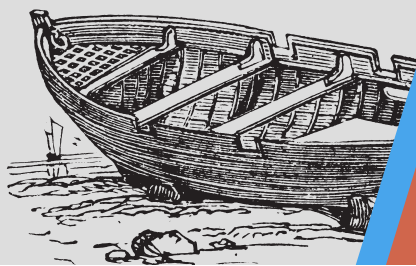

Trakai Castle was built in the 14th century and served as a place of residence for the Grand Dukes of Lithuania. The structure fell into disarray in the 17th century and was only rebuilt in 1951, becoming a part of the Trakai History Museum in 1962.

The Castle is renowned for its gothic architecture and its noteworthy location - it stands on an island on Lake Galve, which is one of the deepest lakes in Lithuania. You can reach the castle by crossing a long, wooden bridge. You can also get a special view of the castle from a yacht.
