

Deciding to go and participate in Erasmus + studies program was the best decision ever made.

Deciding to go and participate in Erasmus + studies program was the best decision ever made. Not only I met a lot of people with different cultural backgrounds, but also I learned really practical things, which I can use later in my future job in a statutory institution.

