

..This programme gave me a vital experience in communication with different nationalities and their traditions.

It was a great opportunity to discover France and its culture. This programme gave me a vital experience in communication with different nationalities and their traditions. Moreover, I have gained new knowledge in law and I have met new friends.

