

Extend the borrowing term of a book

Log in to your Readers Account

1. Go to Library Catalogue ⇒ <http://mru.library.lt/en>
2. Select “Login” and enter your MRU e-mail user name and password.

3. Select “My account” on the menu bar.

Renew the borrowing term

1. Choose “Loans/renewals” and click on the indicated number.

Activities:

Loans/renewals	1	Click to view more info, renew, delete, etc.
History of Loans	447
Hold requests	0
History of hold requests	51
Cash Transactions, Eur	0.00

The number '1' in the 'Loans/renewals' row is circled in red, with a downward-pointing arrow above it.

2. Check the box by the publication you want to renew and press “Renew Selected”. If you choose “Renew All”, then the system will automatically extend the borrowing term of ALL your borrowed publications.

User Info | Loans | Hold Requests | History Loans | Renew All | Renew Selected | Cash Transactions

For details about a loan, click on the underlined number.

		Author	Title	Year	Due date
1	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Weissman, Jerry,	Pergalingos prezentacijos :	2006	2023-11-06 23.59

The number '1' in the first column is underlined and has an upward-pointing arrow below it. The 'Renew Selected' link in the previous block has an upward-pointing arrow below it.

The system will not allow extending borrowing term:

- If the book has been reserved by another Library user.
- If you are late to return more than 2 books.
- If your fine for late returning books exceeds 9,90 EUR.
- If you are late to return a book, which was borrowed for a night.