

Offered Internship Positions for MRU International Students and International Graduates under UPinLT Programme
 (Note: If a student or graduate wishes to participate, but the offered organizations do not align with their study programme or qualification, they are recommended to independently search for accepting organizations operating in Lithuania.)

Company	Internship description including duties, responsibilities and tasks of the trainee	Suitable study areas for the position	Number of positions available	Who can apply	Duration of practice	Special skills required	Application due date	Application to present your candidacy consists of filling Application form. As soon as the application is filled out, please send a copy of your valid Temporary Residence Permit (TRP) or Temporary Residence Card (TRC) along with your CV to traineeships@mruni.eu	How would the host organization prefer the candidate selection process to proceed?
Government Strategic Analysis Center STRATA	The tasks involve analyzing data and providing an overview of available information related to global policy topics such as AI, EU law, International Relations, Security and Economics, Energy, Innovation, Social Affairs, and more.	Political Science. Social policy. Social Work and Human Rights Economics (with a focus on international relations) Public Policy Global Governance Conflict Resolution Comparative Politics	1	final year students of BA level who can work minimum 20 hours a week.	2 months	Fluent in English. Lithuanian language at least basic proficiency would be great. Interested in politics (Economics, Social Affairs, Innovations, International Relations, etc.) and public policy decision-making. Adaptable, quick learner, strong time management, basic data analysis, graph/table creation, and good writing skills.	2024-04-30	Fill in the registration form.	The organization receives a list from MRU of suitable candidates and conducts the selection process internally.
Tarptautinės migracijos organizacijos Vilniaus biuras / International Organization for Migration - Vilnius	Internship at Migration Information unit . The intern is expected to assist in proofreading content in the English and Russian languages on IOM websites and social media, as well as participate in various activities and events organized by IOM Lithuania	Internship at Migration Information Center unit: Student of English language and other language (Russian/Ukrainian)	1	Students who can work 20 hours a week, fluency in English and Russian languages	3-month student internship, with students committing to work a minimum of 20 hours per week.	Requirements include proficiency in MS Office packages, strong communication skills, fluency in English and Russian languages, motivation, and attention to detail.	The term is over, yet we are seeking to find out if organization is willing to extend	Fill in the registration form.	The organization receives a list from MRU of suitable candidates and conducts the selection process internally.
Trakų rajono paramos šeimai ir vaikams centras (Trakai District Family and Child Support Center)	The a psychology student intern is expected to be actively involved in individual counseling sessions with parents to address their specific needs and challenges. Facilitate group sessions aimed at providing mutual support and sharing coping strategies among parents facing similar difficulties. Collaborate with other professionals, such as social workers or case managers, to develop comprehensive support plans for parents and their families. Participate in workshops or training sessions to enhance understanding of addiction and its impact on families. Prepare educational materials or resources to help parents better understand and manage their difficulties.	Psychology	2	Students who can work 20 hours a week, know Polish, Russian languages.	3-month student internship, with students committing to work a minimum of 20 hours per week.	The internship will take place in the Trakai district. Thus, interns should be prepared to allocate additional time for commuting to the location. However, it is important to mention that the supervisors of the internship sites reside in Vilnius. Therefore, students may have the opportunity to travel to the internship sites together with the supervisors. The Trakai District Family and Children Support Centre has a large number of clients who are served in Russian and Polish, thus the students have to know Russia or Polish. Address: Aukštadvario g. 33, Mikniškių k., Trakai sen., Trakai r. sav.	2024-05-10	Fill in the registration form.	The organization receives a list from MRU of suitable candidates and conducts the selection process internally.

The table will be regularly updated. Furthermore, additional internship offers are planned to be incorporated.
 Updated 2024-04-25