

The University of Siegen is excited to announce a new semester of its program for Virtual Mobility. Select classes in the winter term 25/26 (from October to beginning of February in Germany) have been specifically designated to allow for virtual participants from our partner universities.

Please follow this link to see the program as well as further information on how to sign up for the classes. We would appreciate you forwarding this information to interested students or faculty members for dissemination.

Please feel free to direct any question concerning the format or enrollment therein to me as the University's Incoming Coordinator.

The application Deadline is September 15th 2025.

We look forward to enhancing our partnership with virtual formats.
