

INVITATION

book presentation & discussion

The book "Escaping Stalin" – a story about escape, loss and belonging – but also about hope, courage, and cultural communities.

The books recount the history of thousands of people from Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania who fled across the Baltic Sea during World War II and found temporary refuge in Denmark while their homelands were under Soviet occupation.

Frontpage illustration by Kurt Nielsen/Ritzau Scanpix

Mykolas Romeris University, Ateities St. 20, Vilnius, Auditorium I-414

17.10.2025 | 9:30 am

Thomas Græsbøll
Svaneborg

Authors of the book, Brian Traantoft Rasmussen and Thomas Græsbøll Svaneborg, will talk about their research and work on the book, and about how life in exile shapes identities and life paths.

Brian Traantoft
Rasmussen

REGISTRATION
by October 16