

Welcome to MRU!

We're glad you've joined the MRU community – a meaningful and collaborative journey awaits you.

Below you'll find key information to help you integrate smoothly into University life.

Email Signature Template

Once you create your email account, remember to add an email signature.

A professional signature is not only a representation of you but also reflects MRU's image.

MRU Events

Follow all university events in one place – the MRU Outlook events calendar.

There you'll find information about conferences, training sessions, and other important events.

Community Well-being Center

this center was established to strengthen the physical and emotional well-being of students and staff, and to nurture cultural life at the university.

MRU Identity

All official documents, presentations, and visuals should follow MRU's visual identity guidelines.

Access and download MRU logos (color, black, white), PowerPoint and Word templates, and the graphic style guide.

Trade Union

The MRU Trade Union offers free legal consultations, assists in resolving staff disputes through social mediation, develops university social policy, and represents employees' interests to the Rectorate.

Employee Benefits

MRU cares about its community. Employees can enjoy various benefits, including:

- International Teacher Identity Card (ITIC)
- Excursions and events
- Partner offers
- Free university courses
