

Components of the admission score for applicants in 2026

(Applicable to applicants to bachelor's studies who have completed secondary education.)

Study programme	Required exams or annual grades (weighting coefficient)*
Global Business and Modern Marketing (EN) Business Management and Startup Building (EN) Health Services and Facility Management (LT) Accounting and Finance (LT) Business Management (LT)	Mathematics – 40% of the admission score; History or Foreign Language or Information Technologies or Geography – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam held in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Law (LT) Law and Global Security (EN) Law, Financial Innovation and Artificial Intelligence (specialisation) (LT) Law and International Relations (specialisation) (LT) Law and Pre-trial Process (LT) Law and Criminalistics (specialisation) (LT) Law and Internal Affairs Service (LT) Law and Law Enforcement  (LT)	History – 40% of the admission score; Mathematics or Foreign Language or Information Technologies – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam held in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
National Security (LT) Public Safety (Professional Bachelor's degree) (LT)	History – 30% of the admission score; Geography or Foreign Language or Mathematics or Information Technologies – 25% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam held in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 25% of the admission score.
Public Policy and Management (LT) Politics and Communication (specialisation) (LT) Politics and Economics (specialisation) (LT) Public Administration and Leadership (specialisation) (LT)	History – 40% of the admission score; Mathematics or Foreign Language or Information Technologies or Geography – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam held in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Social Work and Human Rights (LT)	History – 40% of the admission score;

	Mathematics or Foreign Language or Information Technologies or Geography – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam held in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Social Pedagogy and Career Guidance (LT) Pre-school Education Pedagogy (LT)	Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 40% of the admission score; Mathematics or Information Technologies – 20% of the admission score; History – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam taken in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Psychology (LT and EN)	Mathematics – 40% of the admission score; Biology – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam taken in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Communication and Digital Marketing (LT and EN)	Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 40% of the admission score; History or Mathematics or Information Technologies or Geography – 20% of the admission score; Foreign Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam taken in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
English for Specific Purposes and the Second Foreign Language (EN) English for Specific Purposes and Korean Studies (specialisation) (EN) Translation, Editing and Language Technologies (LT/EN) Business English and Communication (specialisation) (LT)	Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 40% of the admission score; History or Geography or Mathematics or Information Technologies – 20% of the admission score; Foreign Language (English) – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam taken in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.
Game Development and Digital Animation (EN) Digital Media Design (specialisation) (EN) Digital Technologies and Cybersecurity (LT)	Mathematics – 40% of the admission score; Information Technologies or Physics or Biology or Chemistry or Geography – 20% of the admission score; Lithuanian Language and Literature / Native Language – 20% of the admission score; Any other subject not overlapping with the above (a state maturity exam taken in the current year) (exam or annual grade) – 20% of the admission score.

* – only grades from distinct (non-repeating) subjects are used to calculate the admission score.

** – a referral from an institution under the Ministry of Interior is required.